Office Action Summary

Art Unit: 2751

DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 1-12 are presented for examination.
2. The Office acknowledges Applicant's claim for priority based upon Application No. 9-004427 filed in Japan on January 14, 1997.
3. Applicant is reminded of the duty to disclose information under 37 C.F.R. 1.56.

Drawings

4. The drawings are objected to because of the following informalities:
 - a. In Figure 4 at the left side, should "DM 0" and "DM 255" be changed to show "Logical Volume" instead of "DM"? See page 10 of the specification, also Figure 3.
 - b. In Figure 6 at decision box S8, "DA" should probably be changed to "CA", see page 13 of the specification.Correction is required.
5. The drawings are objected to by the draftsman. See attached PTO-948.

Art Unit: 2751

6. Applicant is reminded of the provision of MPEP 608.02(q) and (r) regarding a separate letter to the Chief Draftsman and 608.02(v) regarding the requirement for filing red line sketches of any proposed drawing changes.

Specification

7. The title of the invention is not descriptive. A new title is required that is clearly indicative of the invention to which the claims are directed. The following title is suggested:

RAID Apparatus and Access Control Method Therefor Which Balances the Use of the Disk Units

8. The abstract of the disclosure is objected to because at line 13 (as numbered on the page) the word "designed" should be changed to --designated--. Correction is required. See MPEP § 608.01(b).

9. The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities:

a. At page 9 line 24, change "21" to --20--.

Appropriate correction is required.

10. Applicant's cooperation is requested in correcting any errors of which applicant may become aware in the specification.

Art Unit: 2751

Claim Objections

11. The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities:

a. In claim 1 and throughout the claims, the terms “form”, “forms”, and “forming” are objected to; Examiner does not believe it is accurate to recite that the disk units form logical volumes, rather that they store them, or perform operations on them, etc.

b. In claim 1 and 7, “a number of operations” might be interpreted as “a plurality of operations”; it is suggested to change to --a value indicating a number of operations--.

c. In claim 1 at line 11 change “designed” to --designated--.

d. In claim 3 lines 7-8, “determining a physical disk unit in accordance with said number” is objected to; this could mean finding the unit having the number, finding the unit that is within a tolerance of the number, or determining which to access by using the number.

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

12. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

13. Claims 1-12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. Claims 1 and 7 both recite “same logical volumes”, then later a “designated logical volume". "Same logical volumes" is not clear: this could mean all volumes are identical, that the ones recited are the same as some other unrecited volumes, that all disk units have identical volumes, etc. It is suggested to change "same" to something like --a plurality of copies of each of the-- to make it clear what applicant intends the claim to cover. It is further noted that "designated logical volumes" as recited in claim 2 makes it appear that "designating" still allows the choice of which of the "same" logical volumes; however, claim 1 may be interpreted as a single designated volume.

Art Unit: 2751

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

14. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless --

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371© of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

15. Claims 1-12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Kakuta, U.S. Patent 5,636,356.

16. As to claims 1 and 7, Kakuta discloses a RAID apparatus and control method comprising:

Art Unit: 2751

a. Plurality of disk units (Drives 1-4) for forming same logical volumes (individually numbered data blocks #1, #2, etc.), and disk controller (2) for accessing the disk units/logical volumes (see Figures 1 and 4, and column 7 lines 20-39, column 11 lines 1-3);

b. The disk controller including a memory storing number of request operations to each disk, and control means for accessing one unit in accordance with the number of operations (see column 14 lines 35-49).

17. As to claims 2 and 8, Kakuta discloses that the numbers of operations are compared and the disk unit having the minimum number is selected (see column 14 lines 35-49; since when the count of a disk unit exceeds a threshold, another will be accessed, this may be seen as a comparison of the counts, where the disk unit with fewer counts, or not exceeding the threshold, is selected).

18. As to claims 3 and 9, Kakuta discloses channel adapter (6) as claimed (see Figure 1, and column 6 lines 36-47), device adapter (10) for accessing the disk units (see Figure 1 and column 6 lines 4-6), and resource manager circuit (DCU 7) as claimed (see column 7 lines 20-39) .

19. As to claims 4 and 10, Kakuta discloses the incrementing and decrementing number of operations of a disk unit is clearly implemented as described at column 14 lines 35-49.

Art Unit: 2751

20. As to claims 5-6 and 11-12, Kakuta discloses the memory stores status information for the disk units, for use in selecting a normal unit (see column 12 lines 39 et seq., where DCU 7 controls fault recovery, and clearly must store information indicating disk unit status to direct access to a normal disk unit).

Conclusion

21. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Patent No.

22. A shortened statutory period for response to this action is set to expire 3 (three) months and 0 (zero) days from the mail date of this letter. Failure to respond within the period for response will result in Abandonment of the application (see 35 USC 133, MPEP 710.02, 710.02(b)).
